

Legislative Information

This summer and fall, the Interim Study Committee on Economic Development will meet to consider the following issues. RAI members hope to offer comments at these upcoming legislative hearings.

INTERIM STUDY COMMITTEE ON ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT (HEA 1086)
THE COMMITTEE IS CHARGED WITH STUDYING THE FOLLOWING TOPICS:

- A. Best practices in state and local economic development policies and activities;
- B. The use and effectiveness of tax credits and deductions;
- C. Whether there are any specific sectors of the economy for which Indiana might have comparative advantages over other states;
- D. The extent to which Indiana's tax laws encourage business investment, and any improvements that might be made to Indiana's tax laws;
- E. The extent to which Indiana's education systems support economic development; and
- F. The benefits of existing community revitalization enhancement districts and possible new community revitalization enhancement districts as an economic development tool.
